YOUR FUTURE AS AN AUTO REPAIR TECHNICIAN.

You can join the ranks of trained Auto Repair Technicians now working around the world, in as little as one year, with distance training from Penn Foster Career School. Here are just a few of the options available when you complete your Career Diploma program:

- Work on all makes and models of cars.
- Work for an established repair shop, a car dealership, or even open your own garage.
- Do your own repairs, as well as those of your friends and family, saving you and them hundreds and even thousands of dollars a year.
- Prepare for ASE Certification — the standard certification of automotive service excellence.

PREPARE FOR A HIGH-GROWTH, HIGH-SALARY CAREER

With people buying more and more cars every day, there is a constant need for trained Auto Repair Technicians. Skilled mechanics can find employment in different industries from the automotive section of a department store to local government agencies. Jobseekers who have completed formal postsecondary training programs should enjoy the best job prospects. Trained and experienced Auto Repair Technicians can earn great money.

IT PAYS TO CONTINUE YOUR EDUCATION.

The need for training and retraining in new skills for today's changing job market has motivated many adults to continue their education.

Penn Foster addresses this growing need with Career Diploma programs like the Auto Repair Technician Program. Preparing for your new career is easy and convenient because:

- There is no going to class, no need to rearrange schedules. You choose the time and place to complete your coursework.
- You work at your own pace — as quickly as you like — and you don't have to take time from job and social responsibilities.
- The learning materials you need are sent directly to you for your convenience.
- You can study online, through the printed page, or a combination of both. You decide which method matches your learning style.
- You can also download study materials, submit assignments, take exams, email your instructor, check your grades, or review your student records online.
- You need no previous experience.
